

Update from the Music Service

The music service has started some new ensembles for 2023 (please see below). One of these, I am leading and it is at Thomas Adams on Wednesday evenings between 4:45pm-5:45pm. It is suitable for anyone who has been playing for a few months or more, so would be great for any children taking instrumental lessons at your school, including with non sms teachers and at home. It is open to any instrument and will be suited to KS2 upwards and its FREE! I'd be most grateful if you could share this with parents and encourage your instrumentalists to attend to help them to further develop their skills. To sign up, follow the link below. (There are choirs too for any budding singers!)

NEW ENSEMBLES

We're delighted to launch our new set of ensembles for 2023. From January, we are offering a wide range of ensembles at various locations throughout the county. All ensembles are free-of-charge and are open to all children and young people. There is no limit on the number of ensembles you can join!

For further details of our entire offer, along with instructions on how to sign up, please visit: <https://www.shropshiremusicservice.org.uk/ensembles>

Ensembles | Shropshire Music Service

Our exciting range of ensembles are offered in several venues across the county, free-of-charge to all participants. Rehearsals commence the week beginning . 9th January 2023 and will run on a weekly basis.

www.shropshiremusicservice.org.uk

Some of our new ensembles include two mixed vocal groups: our youth choir (up to year 6) at Sundorne Infant, and our advanced show choir (11+) at Shrewsbury Academy. If you're a beginner instrumentalist, then our training orchestra or one of our popular Stompers groups might be of interest. We're also delighted to announce the return of Youth Orchestra in addition to a brand-new Big Band and World Folk Ensemble.